But the Government declined in their Proceedings No. 5269-78—Muz. F. 6-1902, dated 17th May 1906, to revive the system of receiving deposits from private persons on favourable rate of interest at 5 per cent, and observed that the proper course was for intending benefactors to buy Government of India Securities and deposit them with Government with a view to the interest thereon being drawn and utilized for the stipulated charities.

A list of expenditure to be incurred is submitted for sanction.

4. The Deputy Commissioner's recommendation is accordingly sanctioned, and the scale of establishment and other charges amounting to Rs. 1,080 per annum as per list appended, is approved.

5. 6. A notification appointing Mr. Venkatappa as the sole Dharmadarsi for the management of the charities, will separately issue.

7. The prayer of Mr. Venkatappa for appointing a competent person from among his family members to succeed him in the management of the charities after him, is also sanctioned, subject to the condition that the nomination should be approved by Government in the Muzrai Department
